villages is supported by the Samad Income Settlement & longevity ment. but not of the last named village - Only Sravanabelagola village has a date grove as well as a toddy shop - while the other villages have neither.

The investigating officer was in the Calendar & perused the books as regards the applicability of the rules in awarding amounts for past years; but the Excise Comr. is of opinion that only rules 2, 529 are applicable. As the shop has drawn its profits both under Preliminary & Ry. System & Ry. System from four villages also rules 6 & 12 should equally also be applied.

The grove never was not applied to Hosahalli & Vuthenahalli villages as they have neither shop nor trees. The only rule applicable to them seems to be 13. as the Inamdars will be entitled to some revenue when a grove is formed in the two villages at some time in

Sir,

I have the honor to submit the record of enquiry into the inamdar's claim to the Doddy revenue of the marginally noted sarvamanyam villages in the Chenroyapatna Taluk, Hassan district

2. These villages belong to the Jain Matt at Sravanabelagola and were granted for maintenance, one in 1310 and the other three in 1830.

3. The inamdar of 1830 endowing the villages of Sravanabelagola, Hosahally and Vuttenahally conceded "Shalpyam" to the inamdar and the Inam department has confirmed it

4 Of the three villages above referred to only one, ie, Sravanabelagola has a to let shop as also grove and the inamdar has been in the enjoyment of Doddy revenue for not less there is both a shop and a the shop having drawn its supplies from government villages (Inam).

It is proved that for the 12 years preceding 1892-93 the toddy revenue of the village was enjoyed by the Matt. The cess of the village must therefore be levied by Rules 2, 5, 6, 9 and 12 framed Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Financial, dated 3rd February 1905.

READ—

Letter No. 4716—246, dated the 4th January 1905, from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, submitting the record of enquiry regarding the claim of the Jain Matt at Sravanabelagola to the Toddy Excise revenue of Sravanabelagola and three other villages in the Channarayapatna Taluk in the Hassan District.

No. FL. 5103-4—SEP. REV. 68-04-2, DATED BANGALORE, 3RD FEBRUARY 1905.

ORDER THEREON.—Sravanabelagola, Hosahalli and Vuttenahalli were granted in 1830 and Kabbalia was granted in 1810 as sarvamanyam to the Jain Matt at Sravanabelagola. During the Inam enquiry the right to the Toddy revenue of the three villages alienated in 1830 was established and conceded. In Sravanabelagola there is both a shop and a grove, the shop drawing its supply both from the Inam village and from Government villages. It is proved that for the 12 years preceding 1892-93 the Toddy revenue of the village was enjoyed by the Matt. The case of the village must therefore be governed by Rules 2,5,6,9 and 12 printed with Government Proceedings No. 2074-83—R.F. 166-92, dated the 2nd August 1901. There is neither a shop nor a grove in the other two villages or in Kebbala, which latter possesses no right to the Toddy Excise under the Sannad of 1810. The villages of Hosahalli and Vuttenahalli fall under Rule 13 as amended by Government Proceedings No. 1650-9—S. R. 166-92, dated the 19th September 1904, and Kebbala must be treated differently being entitled only to tree rent as stated in Rule 22.
